Sectarianism

Scottish football fans have earned a word wide reputation for their enthusiastic and good-natured support of the national team. While most fans follow club football in a responsible way, there are occasions where individuals are intent on causing trouble, using football as an excuse for bigoted and unacceptable behaviour.

By working together to remove bigotry from our football grounds we can show the world that at home Scottish football fans and in particular Huntly Football Club supporters:

- respect people of all backgrounds and celebrate the multicultural society that Scotland has become in the 21st Century;
- want their football clubs, and the support for their clubs, to reflect the diversity of modern Scottish society; and
- are passionate about their football clubs without degrading the opposing team or supporters
